

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Laura Lawler, Stern PR 412.928.1987

lauralawler@sternadvertising.com

NAILERS GAME SET FOR RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES FUNDRAISER

Wheeling Nailers to auction off special edition jerseys at January 6th game to raise money for Ronald McDonald House Charities of Morgantown

WHEELING, WV - (January 3, 2012)... On Friday, January 6 at 7:35pm the Wheeling Nailers will host the Cincinnati Cyclones during a special Ronald McDonald House Charities fundraiser night at Wesbanco Arena. The Nailers have partnered with Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHC) of Morgantown for a special evening to help raise money for the charity, which benefits families with critically-ill or injured children who are in need of housing.

The Nailers will be dressed in special edition red jerseys for the game in honor of RMHC night. Fans will have a chance to win these red jerseys during a post-game auction with all proceeds going to RMHC.

Fans can also help support RMHC during the game by purchasing tickets to the 50/50 raffle and bringing in pop tabs off of soda cans, which has been an ongoing program of RMHC to raise money and also encourage recycling. The one and only Ronald McDonald and other local RMHC and McDonald's[®] representatives will be on hand during the game.

-more-

“We are excited to partner with the Wheeling Nailers for this special fundraiser to support the charity,” said Steve De Jesus, Executive Director and CEO of RMHC, Morgantown. “Of course, we will all be cheering for the Nailers to win that night, but either way it will be a big win for all of those families and children who benefit from the Ronald McDonald House.”

Founded in 1990, RMHC of Morgantown, WV was created to find and support programs that make an immediate and positive impact on the health and well-being of children. Guided by their core values, RMHC provides a “home-away-from-home” without the financial burden of a hotel for parents of critically-ill or injured children. Yet, RMHC is more than just a roof overhead. During this emotional time, the house offers the comforts of home while also providing support and encouragement. Annually serving over 1,800 families traveling from West Virginia and surrounding states as well as internationally, RMHC has impacted the more than 30,000 lives.

For more information on Ronald McDonald House Charities, Morgantown including donation and volunteer information, please visit <http://www.rmhcmtgn.org/>

###